SLEEPY EYE - Two Sleepy Eye residents were arrested Friday on a variety of felony drug charges after a raid by law enforcement officers.

Officers from the Sleepy Eye Police, the Brown County Sheriff's Office and Brown Lyon Redwood Renville County Drug Task Force raided a Sleepy Eye residence at 518 2nd Ave. S.W. at 1:50 p.m. Friday.

Inside the residence, agents found Kaitlyn R. Hackbarth, 21, and Anthony M. Kolbe, 31, who were later arrested. In addition, a variety of drugs were taken into evidence, according to court documents.

Felony charges filed in Brown County District Court Monday against Hackbarth and Kolbe included first-degree aggravated controlled substance crimes with two aggravating factors, first-degree drug sale, second-degree drug sale and fifth-degree drug sale marijuana mixture and drug possession.

Kolbe's unconditional bail was set at $300,000 Monday. He was not allowed conditional bail. Hackbarth's unconditional bail was set at $20,000. Court appearances were set for 9 a.m. and 9:15 a.m. May 22 respectively.

According to court documents, Hackbarth was emotional, at times irate, at times hysterical when law enforcement entered the residence. Hackbarth also allowed a large dog loose in the house to be aggressive. She was escorted out of the residence before she agreed to remain calm and control the dog.

After Hackbarth and Kolbe were arrested and transported to the Brown County Law Enforcement Center, law enforcement searched the residence and found:

* Many containers, bags and packages of a green, leafy substance. Most of which were commercially packaged with descriptions including THC content and warnings. Bags removed from a desk weighed a total of 29.1 ounces.

* Digital scales and many containers of commercially packaged marijuana wax that weighed a total of 117 grams.

* Many bags of commercially packaged "shatter" (marijuana concentrate) that weighed 56.1 grams.
